	Title: Records of Bethnal Green Labour Party Extent: 8 boxes Description: Records of Bethnal Green Labour Party The Bethnal Green Labour Party was formed in 1947 following a merger of the North East Bethnal Green and the South West Bethnal Green Labour parties that had been created in 1918. The Representation of the People Act (1948) created a single parliamentary constituency in Bethnal Green. However this was not co-terminus with the boundaries of the Borough of Bethnal Green as it included parts of the Borough of Hackney The Bethnal Green Labour Party ceased to exist in 1971 when the Bethnal Green and Bow constituency was formed and subsequently the Tower Hamlets Labour Party was established. An early minute book and papers 1909-1912 is held by the London School of Economics Archives and Special Collections (ref: COLL MISC 0424) Access Conditions: Request: NO - This does not represent a physical document. S/LAB/C	Section Title: Records of the Bethnal Green Borough Labour Group of the Bethnal Green Trades Council and Central Labour Party Extent: 3 files Description: Records of the Bethnal Green Borough Labour Group of the Bethnal Green Trades Council and Central Labour Party, 1915-1934. The Bethnal Green Trades Council was set up in 1907 and in 1918 affiliated to the Labour Party to become The Bethnal Green Trades Council and Central (or Borough) Labour Party. In 1919 the Socialists were successful in the borough council elections, gaining 24 seats to the Progressives' six and from this date until 1928 Bethnal Green was governed by an alliance of Labour and Communists. Disunity began to set in however in the early 1920s following the decision of the national executive of the Labour party to refuse the Communist Party to affiliate. This led to tensions between the Borough Labour Party and the divisional labour parties of North East and South West Bethnal Green. In the borough elections of 1928 two sets of Labour candidates were put up in all four wards, representing the right and the left wing. As a result the Liberals captured every one of the thirty seats. Access Conditions: Request: NO - This does not represent a physical document. The two former Labour parties of South Poplar and Bow and Bromley were formed in 1919 but there is a considerably longer history of labour associations in Poplar, the Poplar Labour League having been founded in 1891 and a branch of the Social Democratic Federation formed in Bow and Bromley at around the same time. The Poplar Labour Party ceased to exist in 1971 when the Stepney and Poplar constituency was formed and subsequently the Tower Hamlets Labour Party was established. Access Conditions: Request: NO - This does not represent a physical document. S/LAB/K	Sub-fonds Title: Records of the Tower Hamlets Labour Party Extent: 18 boxes Description: Records of the Tower Hamlets Labour Party, 1960s-1980s. In 1963, in anticipation of the creation of the London Borough of Tower Hamlets, the Joint Co-ordinating Committee - Stepney, Poplar and Bethnal Green was established, providing the means for the three constituency Labour parties to co-ordinate the election campaign, etc. for the London Borough of Tower Hamlets. This was succeeded by the Tower Hamlets Local Government Committee. In 1972 following the reduction of constituencies in the Borough from three to two, an all-purpose borough party was established, The Tower Hamlets Labour Party. In 1983 a decision was made to revert to two sovereign constituency parties with borough wide co-ordination being undertaken by the Tower Hamlets Local Government Committee. Access Conditions: Request: NO - This does not represent a physical document.
